Sarah Ellis, Senior Assessment Services, Cambridge English
- 17.45-18.00 B2 & C1 teaching resources, print and digital, Michael Clancy, ELT Consultant,

We will be looking will briefly at the language skills required at B2 & C1 and discuss ideas to develop students' abilities. We will consider some of the challenges that our students face at these levels and offer some practical ideas to use in the classroom or in online/hybrid teaching contexts and will reflect on the use of some digital platforms and tools. We will also explore ideas for supporting learners to become more autonomous at these levels.
